DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claim 1, drawn to an antibody specific for MORT-1 protein, classified in class 530, subclass 387.9.
 - II. Claims 2 and 14, drawn to a method of modulating a FAS-R ligand effect on cells with a viral vector, classified in class 435, subclass 320.1.
 - III. Claims 6 and 17, drawn to a method of treating tumor cells or HIV with a viral vector, classified in class 435, subclass 320.1.
 - IV. Claim 3, drawn to a method of modulating a FAS-R ligand effects on cell with an antibody, classified in class 424, subclass 143.1.
 - V. Claims 4,5,15, and 16, drawn to a method of modulating FAS-R ligand effects on cells with an oligonucleotide sequence encoding an antisense molecule, classified in class 514, subclass 44.
 - VI. Claims 7 and 18, drawn to a method of modulating FAS-R ligand effects on cells comprising applying the ribozyme procedure, classified in class 424, subclass 94.1.
 - VII. Claims 8,12,13, and 19, drawn to a method of modulating FAS-R ligand effects on cells with a MORT-1 polypeptide, classified in class 514, subclass 2.

- VIII. Claim 9, drawn to a method of isolating and identifying proteins, factors, and receptor that bind to MORT-1 by using chromatography, classified in class 530, subclass 413.
- IX. Claim 10, drawn to method of isolating and identifying proteins that bind to MORT-1 by using a yeast two-hybrid system, classified in class 435, subclass 7.2.
- X. Claim 11, drawn to a method of isolating and identifying a protein capable of binding to the intracellular domain of FAS-R, classified in class 435, subclass 6.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

- 2. Inventions I and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the antibody of group I can be used for in vitro analytical purposes such as in the identification of proteins in a western blot.
- 3. The inventions of group I and groups II-III, V-X are not related one to the other because the product is not used for any of the recited methods of modulation, treatment, or methods of isolation or identification.
- 4. The inventions of group II-X are not related one to the other because they are all distinct methods all of which require different starting materials, have different purposes, and are used to modulate or isolate/identify different products which have different structures and functions.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
